The telegram adds:

Washington, June 28 .- Yesterday the | try swarming with their most violent officials here felt sure that the foreign ministers to China were safe with Admiral Seymour's column. This morning that confidence is shaken. The only official dispatch received over night from the seat of trouble-one from Admiral Kempff-was so barren of the information so earnestly demanded here as to cause severe criticism at the admiral's expense. His dispatch makes no mention of the ministers' welfare nor of Seymour's column. Taken in connection with the press dispatches from Che Foo via Shanghai relative to the return of Seymour's broken column to Tien Tsin, the officials feel that they have good ground for renewed apprehension as to the fate of the foreign ministers.

The conclusion drawn by navy department officials from Admiral Kempff's dispatch is that he is not in communication with Tien Tsin, and that notwithstanding the cable company's notice of yesterday there is still no new route open to that city, save by runners who must pass through a country beset by Boxers to reach Che

DEALING WITH VICEROYS.

An explanation was had at the state department today of the report from Shanghai that the consuls there were negotiating with the Chinese viceroys respecting the protection of the city. Because they were cut off from communication with Minister Conger from whom they should receive instructions in normal conditions, the American consuls in China had been embarrassed in lealing with the local Chinese authorities by reason of the necessity of securing instructions from Washington at every point. Therefore Secretary Hay ent a general instruction to all of the American consuls in China who could be reached by cable and wire, authorizing them to deal directly with the vice roys and taots in framing measures for the protection of American lives and

IN CASE OF WAR.

Shanghai has heretofore been made a neutral port during time of war by special agreement between foreign con-suls and the Chinese officials and it is probable that a similar arrangement ll be made now. The only condition is that before withdrawing their naval forces from the treaty ports the foreign consuls must feel assured that the Chinese officials are not only willing but perfectly able to ensure the safety of the foreigners in the town.

The Ninth infantry, which is reported to have cleared yesterday from Manila, should reach Taku about Wednesday next, the fourth of July. The war department already had anticipated Admiral Kempff's suggestion relative to landing the troops at Taku instead of Nominating Presidential Candidates Serving Other Political Parties.

Chicago, June 28.-The attendance at the Prohibition national convention today was much larger than yesterday. The galleries of the big First Regiment Armory were thronged when Chairman Dickie rapped the convention to order at 10 a. m. After prayer by Rev. C. H. Mead, of New Jersey, Chairman John of the committee on credentials made a supplementary report showing the arrival of thirty-nine delegates. The total number of delegates present was 730, representing forty States. On account of the total failure of Chairman Dickle's voice, A. G. Wolfenbarger, of Nebraska, took the chair. He recognized National Chairman Oliver W. Stewart, who in a speech of some length outlined the work of the national committee during the last four years. and the work contemplated for the oming campaign.

Mr. Stewart concluded with a plea for funds from those present with which to conduct the campaign which it is intended to be on a more extensive scale than the party has ever before attempted. Several thousand dollars were sub-

"Illinois has two candidates for the presidency," shouted a delegate. Amid applause National Chairman Stewart was recognized to put John G. Woolley in nomination. He said in part:

He closed by naming "John G. Woolley of every State." At mention of Woolley's name the delegates cheered, shouted and waved flags and handker-chiefs, and when Mr. Stewart conclud-ed fully half the delegates arose and

Geo. W. Gere, of Illinois, took the platform to renominate Hale Johnson.

He said: "I have the honor to name before you today the grandest man in the Prohibition party in the world (applause), ex. cept Oliver R. Stewart and myself (laughter). Every delegate in the Pennsylvania section with hands full of gaily colored pampas plumes or with large pictures of Dr. Swallow jumped to his feet shouting wildly, while in other sec-tions of the hall delegates blew horns and waved the State banners. The demonstration continued for several minutes and apparently came near stampeding the convention. A motion to adjourn was made and though apparently howled down the chair ruled the motion had carried. A storm of protests arose and an appeal from the chair's decision was sustained by an

Rev. E. E. Carr, of Illinois, attempted to make a seconding speech in favor of Dr. Swallow. He was the only Swallow adherent in the Illinois delegation, and big row arose over the protest of the Illinois delegates that Dr. Carr did not represent them, A Kentucky delegation made the point of order that "Carr was off the track.

"The point of order is not well taken," ruled the speaker.

Description of the Contest Between Yale and Harvard.

LATTER WAS WELL AHEAD

But the Collapse of the Stroke-Oar Gives the Race to the Yale Crew.

New London, Conn., June 28 .- With two races handily won with credit and with the third, last and most important . of all well in hand, Harvard's hopes were suddenly dashed in the last half mile of the 'Varsity contest this afternoon by the collapse of Harding, the stroke oar.

Altorether it was the most exciting event in college boating for many years. From the very start to the three and a half mile flag, it was a hairraising, heart-breaking contest. Now one boat was ahead, now the other. Now Harvard was wildly cheering, now Yale was in the air. Never for a moment was clear water between the boats. Many boating experts say that not once during the distance was there a half length difference between the crimson and the blue. But toward the last Harvard began to creep up inch by inch, her sturdy bronzed men pushed her prow ahead until at the three mile flag they had a lead and with the race three-quarters over the crimson shouters looked for victory. But they reckoned without 'Varsity stroke oar Harding who came in the emergency and took the place of disabled Captain Hig-sinson. Just after passing the three rinson. Just after passing the three mile flag his oar was seen to be doing less work than the other seven. Then he was observed to go through the motions, but the blade did not touch the water. Coxswain Wadleigh shouted encouragement to him and threw water on his body, but to no avail. He was soon in a state of collarse His strength soon in a state of collapse. His strength was gone, his oar dropped and he fell forward. The other seven men pulled steadily on, but the race was lost. Yale had taken advantage of every second of Harding's disability and pulled across the line four lengths ahead, Considering the heart-breaking pace the other seven men of the Harvard crew were comparatively fresh. There were no signs of any collapse in the Yale boat. The official time of the 'Varsity was:
